

Parable of the Wheat and Weeds (Tares) Quiz

1. Who is the man who sows good seed?
 - a. The disciples
 - b. Jesus Christ Matthew 13:37
 - c. The farmer
 - d. The church
2. What does the field represent?
 - a. The church
 - b. The world Matthew 13:38
 - c. Israel
 - d. The farm
3. What does the good seed represent?
 - a. Jesus
 - b. The sons of the wicked
 - c. The sons of the kingdom Matthew 13:38
 - d. The church
4. What do the weeds represent?
 - a. The evil one
 - b. The sons of the wicked Matthew 13:38
 - c. The sons of the kingdom
 - d. The Pharisees
5. Who is the enemy or evil one that sowed the weeds?
 - a. The devil Matthew 13:39
 - b. A competitive farmer
 - c. An angry neighbor
 - d. The Pharisees
6. What does the harvest represent?
 - a. Time to burn the weeds.
 - b. The process of gathering crops
 - c. The reapers separate the wicked from the righteous.
 - d. The end of the world/ages Matthew 13:39
7. After the reapers gather up the wheat, where do they put it?
 - a. Into God's barn Matthew 13:30
 - b. Into the fire
 - c. Into the wheat grinder to make flour.
 - d. Into the farmer's barn

8. Who are the reapers?
 - a. Satan's fallen angels
 - b. Angels Matthew 13:41
 - c. Satan
 - d. Righteous people
9. What happens to the weeds when they are removed?
 - a. They are rolled up and smoked.
 - b. They will be cast into the furnace of fire. Matthew 13:41
 - c. They are thrown away.
 - d. Animals eat them.
10. The Son of Man send out His angels, who is gathered up first?
 - a. The righteous.
 - b. Women and children
 - c. The undecided
 - d. All those who offend God, and practice lawlessness. Matthew 13:41
11. Why did Jesus tell the servants NOT to gather up the weeds when they sprouted.
 - a. The weeds look very similar to the wheat, and they could not tell the difference.
 - b. Because they will uproot the wheat with them
 - c. It is not the servant's responsibility.
 - d. All the above Question #10
12. What does the barn represent?
 - a. The place where Jesus was born in Nazareth.
 - b. It is where all the sons of the kingdom come to worship.
 - c. The kingdom of heaven Matthew 13:43
 - d. A shed for storing animals and farm equipment.
13. What happens to the righteous after they are harvested?
 - a. They are carried by angels up to heaven.
 - b. They get to live in the barn.
 - c. They become born-again Christians.
 - d. They will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of heaven. Matthew 13:43